A Hidden Wise Deed

Finally, I'll make my favorite lentil soup

Wait a second

the weevil is devouring my lentils!

Why, selfish weevil?

Didn't you think of me??

No—you are the one who never pondered why God guided us to eat grains wherever we found

I never pondered?

Fine, spare me the lecture and just tell me about God's wisdom in that.

Let's suppose we weren't given permission to get to the precious grains that are your life's secret..

All grains belong to me!!

What would kings or the wealthy have done with them?

They would have hoarded them like gold,

.. the poor would remain without food

O Allah, praise be to You

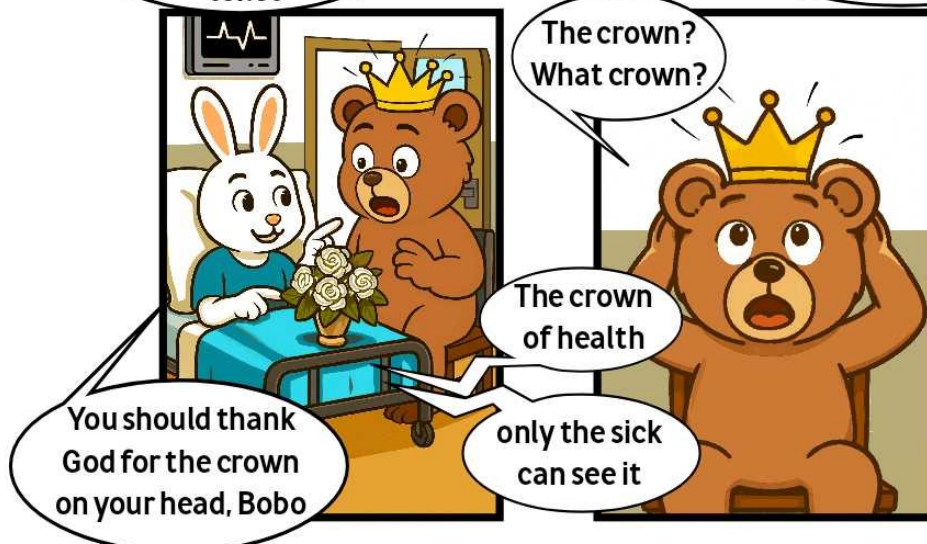

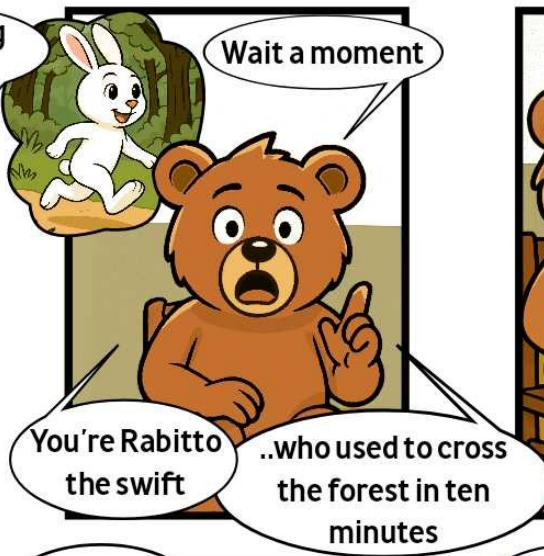

You always help us before we need to ask for help

each tree!

A whole world?!

Also, you see how many animals

Plants convert the sun's energy into sugars, and the heat speeds up their growth

Thank You, our God— You've made even the scorching sun a mercy for us.
